

Database Administrator - Sydney

UnitingCare NSW.ACT is the Board of the NSW and ACT Synod of the Uniting Church responsible for the work of community services, chaplaincy and social justice advocacy. All our work is inspired and guided by the principles of justice and compassion.

Services include aged care and disability programs, services for vulnerable families, children and young people and quality early childhood education and care. UnitingCare NSW.ACT also manages the Medically Supervised Injecting Centre.

The UnitingCareIT Services Centre has been established recently to provide a single shared IT service across UnitingCare NSW.ACT. The creation of a UnitingCare IT Services Centre will provide the underlying platform to support our Strategic Directions and help build the systems and processes we need to better meet present and future needs. With robust systems and up-to-date technology, our focus on care will be intensified, enhanced and continually improved through the delivery of infrastructure, application, end user computing and program management services.

This is a unique opportunity for an experienced Database Administrator to join the team at the IT Services Centre and provide maintenance and management of database platforms.

Key attributes of the role include:

- Five years plus experience in database administration in a Microsoft environment.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills including demonstrated documentation skills.
- Strong interpersonal and customer service skills.
- Demonstrated experience in application performance tuning and database design
- Proven experience in application development in a Windows environment.
- Previous exposure to an ITIL based service management environment

Successful applicants will be rewarded with an exceptional opportunity to significantly impact the growth of the organisation and be rewarded. It is a unique opportunity to work in a friendly, dynamic and social environment.

UnitingCare NSW.ACT is an EEO Employer. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are encouraged to apply.
